

STUDY GUIDE

COURSE #P2012 CHEMICAL MAKEUP OF HAIR, SKIN, AND NAILS

This Study Guide has been included to provide immediate feedback about your achievement for the course learning objectives. The correct answer for the test questions and their locations within the text are indicated below.

- 1. The two main layers of the skin are the epidermis and dermis.
A) True (Chemical and Anatomic Makeup; Skin)
- 2. Melanin is produced in the stratum lucidum.
B) False (Chemical and Anatomic Makeup; Skin)
- 3. There are no hair follicles on the palms of the hands.
A) True (Chemical and Anatomic Makeup; Hair and Scalp; Follicle Structure)
- 4. Coarse hair has the largest diameter, while fine hair has the smallest.
A) True (Chemical and Anatomic Makeup; Hair and Scalp; Physical Properties)
- 5. Bruised nails are characterized by the presence of a dark red or purple blood clot under the nail plate.
A) True (Conditions and Disorders; Conditions Affecting the Nails)